

Let me see | Let him know | Let's go | Imperative - exercise 4

<https://www.e-grammar.org/first-third-person-imperative/>

Exercise 4

Complete these dialogues with "let" and the words in brackets.

Example:

A: Is it a good idea to visit them?

A: John, you can't travel alone.

B: No, it isn't. Let's not go there. (go)

B: Mum, please, let me do it. (do)

A: When do you think we should start?

B: ..... it right now. (do)

---

A: Where shall Susan meet you?

B: ..... for me in the arrivals hall. (wait)

---

A: Oh, no! I left my driving licence at home.

B: Call your brother. .... it to you. (bring)

---

A: I'm sorry, I didn't listen to you.

B: All right. .... it once more. (repeat)

---

A: ..... the rock. (climb)

B: Oh, come on. We should try it at least.

---

A: We can't copy the document. The copier doesn't work.

B: ..... a photo of it then. (take)

---

A: Wait a minute, please. I'm washing the dishes.

B: And where's Tim? ..... (wash up)

---

A: Have you ever seen this picture?

B: No, I haven't. .... a look. (have)

---

A: What did you say about my parents, Miss?

B: ..... to school. I want to talk with them. (come)

---

A: Is Sheila faster than Mary?

B: Definitely. .... the emails. (type)

---