Exercise 4

Complete these dialogues with "let" and the words in brackets.

Example:
A: Is it a good idea to visit them?
B: No, it isn't. Let's not go there. (go)
A: John, you can't travel alone.
B: Mum, please, let me do it. (do)

A: When do you think we should start?
B: .................. it right now. (do)

A: Where shall Susan meet you?
B: ....................... for me in the arrivals hall. (wait)

A: Oh, no! I left my driving licence at home.
B: Call your brother. ......................... it to you. (bring)

A: I'm sorry, I didn't listen to you.
B: All right. ............................ it once more. (repeat)

A: ......................... the rock. (climb)
B: Oh, come on. We should try it at least.

A: We can't copy the document. The copier doesn't work.
B: ......................... a photo of it then. (take)

A: Wait a minute, please. I'm washing the dishes.
B: And where's Tim? .......................... (wash up)

A: Have you ever seen this picture?
B: No, I haven't. ......................... a look. (have)

A: What did you say about my parents, Miss?
B: .............................. to school. I want to talk with them. (come)

A: Is Sheila faster than Mary?
B: Definitely. ......................... the emails. (type)