

Future continuous: exercise 4

Key with answers

I can take you to the airport.

It would be nice. Will you be going that way?

Shall I say hello to her?

Why not? Will you be writing to her?

Marion and Jimmy can stay up late tonight.

Really? Will they be waiting for me?

He won't be there at ten o'clock.

It's a shame. Will he be signing the new contract?

I'll be in the forest.

In the forest? What will you be doing?

There won't be enough oil in a couple of decades.

Do you think so? What will we be using instead?

This time next week I'll be in Madrid.

Lucky you! Will you be staying at a hotel?

Don't ring Sue up at 6 o'clock.

Thanks for telling me. Will she be bathing her baby?

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.