

Future perfect continuous: exercise 3

<https://www.e-grammar.org/future-perfect-continuous/>

Exercise 3

Complete the conversations.

A: How long are you going to stay at this hotel?

B: On Sunday we (stay) here for two weeks and we'd like to stay one more week.

A: Do you think Matt will finish the report in time?

B: No problem. He (work) on it for nearly three days tomorrow.

A: Are you worried about your job interview in Paris?

B: Not really. When I leave for France, I (prepare) for it for more than a month.

A: We are going to the party at 6 o'clock. Will you join us?

B: I'm afraid I'll be tired. I'll (plant) apple trees for five hours when the party starts.

A: Is the electric engine the future of cars?

B: I don't think so. In a ten years' time people (drive) cars with internal combustion engines for a century and a half and it will remain so.

A: How long has Patricia been learning English?

B: At the end of this course she (study) English for six years.

A: How many countries has your sister visited during her journey?

B: I don't really know. But she (backpack) the world for a year before she gets back home.

A: Do you like endless soap operas?

B: I love them. By the end of this year I (watch) Guiding Light for two decades.

A: Is the chicken ready?

B: Not at all. At 12.30 I (bake) it for ninety minutes and it is not ready yet!

A: Is tennis a tiring sport?

B: Tiring? Look at this match. They (play) for more than three or four hours when it ends.