

Future perfect - future continuous: exercise 3

Key with answers

In two years' time I will have finish my studies.

In two years' time I will have finished my studies.

Will they be renovating the restaurant by the end of this year?

Will they have renovated the restaurant by the end of this year?

Tomorrow at 8 o'clock I will travelling to my office as usual.

Tomorrow at 8 o'clock I will be travelling to my office as usual.

Paul has quitted his job before summer.

Paul will have quitted his job before summer.

Will you have waited for me when I arrive at the airport?

Will you be waiting for me when I arrive at the airport?

Will you be returning by midnight?

Will you have returned by midnight?

This time next week Marion will have been playing tennis at Wimbledon.

This time next week Marion will be playing tennis at Wimbledon.

Our specialists will have find a solution before it is too late.

Our specialists will have found a solution before it is too late.

Smart phones will have communicated with more and more devices in a few years' time.

Smart phones will be communicating with more and more devices in a few years' time.

Can I drop in for a while? Will be you working on Saturday?

Can I drop in for a while? Will you be working on Saturday?

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.