

Future perfect simple and continuous: exercise 1

<https://www.e-grammar.org/future-perfect-simple-continuous-worksheets/>

Key with answers

Exercise 1

In five years' time they will have demolished all the houses in this street.

We will have decorated the Christmas tree before our children come back.

I will have been teaching for ten years this year.

My second book will have been published by the end of this year.

Before Greg calls me, I will have been considering his proposal all the time.

You will have been sweating until you open the window.

By Friday we will have received all the needed information.

This year the trees will have been growing for three years.

We will have arrived in Paris by 5 p. m.

At noon we will have been working on our English project for four hours.