

Future perfect simple and continuous: exercise 4

<https://www.e-grammar.org/future-perfect-simple-continuous-worksheets/>

Key with answers

Exercise 4

In two years' time Meg will have graduated.

Next year we will have been living | will have lived in this house for two decades.

Will you have booked your holiday by Christmas?

I will have copied all the materials by noon.

This time next week we will have been sailing in the Pacific for a month.

Will you have come back by Sunday?

He will have passed the driving test by the end of this week.

Will you have made dinner before Bill comes home?

The scientists will have discovered a drug against cancer by the end of this decade.

How long will Jane have been learning Spanish when she leaves school?