

Future perfect simple and continuous

Exercise 6

Key with answers

When will you have cooked the dinner?
By 7 o'clock.

How long will Sam have been writing the book this year?
For three or four years.

How many continents will you have visited after your journey to Australia?
It will be my fifth continent.

When will Sarah have finished her project?
Before Friday.

How long will you have been attending the course this week?
For six weeks or so.

Will they have delivered the refrigerator before we leave?
Yes, by 10 o'clock.

Will you have been living | have lived in this house for a long time before they pull it down?
Yes, for more than ten years.

Will Sheila have bought her new car by the time she goes on holiday?
I have no idea.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.