

Future perfect simple: exercise 2

<https://www.e-grammar.org/future-perfect-simple/>

Key with answers

Exercise 2

I will have taken the photographs by the end of the week.

When you call me I will have found out the information.

I will still be here tomorrow, but Tim will have left.

Clare will have finished her work in half an hour.

By next winter they will have built two new houses in this field.

The train will have arrived at the station before we come there.

I will have attended 150 lessons when the English course ends.

We will have eaten all that bread by tomorrow.

They will have done half of the journey in York.

Hurry up or everyone will have gone home by the time you get to the party.