

Future perfect simple: exercise 2

Key with answers

You will get the photographs on Friday.
I will have taken the photographs by the end of the week.

Call me later. I will know the information.
When you call me I will have found out the information.

I will be here tomorrow, but Tim is going to leave today.
I will still be here tomorrow, but Tim will have left.

Clare will have nothing to do in half an hour.
Clare will have finished her work in half an hour.

In summer there will be two new houses in this field.
By next winter they will have built two new houses in this field.

When we come to the station, the train will be already there.
The train will have arrived at the station before we come there.

I will have 150 lessons in the English course.
I will have attended 150 lessons when the English course ends.

We will have no bread tomorrow.
We will have eaten all that bread by tomorrow.

They will be in the middle of the journey when they reach York.
They will have done half of the journey in York.

If you don't hurry, you won't meet anyone at the party.
Hurry up or everyone will have gone home by the time you get to the party.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.