

Future simple (will): exercise 1

Key with answers.

You can't take my car. I use it at weekends.

You can't take my car. I will (I'll) need it next weekend.

Waiter, we would like two glasses of orange juice.

Waiter, we will (we'll) have two glasses of orange juice.

Do you think our English teacher is preparing a test for tomorrow?

Do you think we will (we'll) write a test tomorrow?

I don't mind going to the cinema if you help me with the housework.

I will (I'll) go to the cinema if you help me with the housework.

I have a lot of work to do in the evening.

I will (I'll work) a lot in the evening.

Dad can't take you to the station because there is a football match on TV.

Dad can't take you to the station because he will (he'll) want to see a football match.

This film is worth the money!

I will (I'll) watch this film!

There is a museum on our programme for tomorrow.

We will (we'll) visit a museum tomorrow.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.