

Gerund or infinitive - exercise 3

<https://www.e-grammar.org/gerund-infinitive-exercises-pdf/>

Key with answers

Exercise 3

He helped me solving my problems.	solve to solve
The policeman ordered me stop .	to stop
You shouldn't risk to lose your reputation.	losing
My hair wants to cut .	cutting
I advised him accepting the offer.	to accept
Excuse me, may I to ask you a question?	ask
Why did you pretend eating my hamburger?	to eat
Excuse me to be late.	for being late
Don't worry. I'll remember calling you tonight.	to call
They invited me coming .	to come
Did you watch them to play cricket?	playing play
Listen, Derek failed passing his final exams!	to pass
I dared not telling him!	tell
It's no use to spend so much money on such a thing.	spending
The test turned out being easy.	to be
It's no good to go out in such a weather.	going out
My phone isn't working. Can I try to use your phone?	using
Would you prefer playing games on a PC monitor or television?	to play
We needed repairing the washing machine.	to repair
The boys always make me laughing .	laugh