

Expressions followed by infinitive: exercise 2

Key with answers

I always do my best to do well at school.

We were proud to announce the birth of our baby.

Sarah is about to leave. Can you see her off?

The young man turned out to be my classmate.

We can't afford to pay for luxuries these days.

Columbus set out to discover America in 1492.

I made an effort to win the race, but I didn't succeed.

The children were afraid to tell the truth.

The manager took the trouble to answer personally.

Once he made up his mind to climb the mountain, there was no stopping him.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.