

First and second conditional - mixed exercise 1

<https://www.e-grammar.org/conditional-mixed-exercises-pdf/>

Key with answers

Exercise 1

If my sister wasn't ill, she would go out.

I won't cook for you if I am busy at the weekend.

If he doesn't drink anything, he'll be thirsty.

If I had a driving licence, I could drive you there.

We'll go to the beach on condition that the weather is sunny.

I would not feel so tired if I slept well.

I could help you provided I knew how to do it.

If you try this meal, you will like it.

If Marion wasn't | weren't much older, I'd marry her.

I'll give you this map in case you get lost.