

Must - Mustn't

Exercise 4. Read the dialogues. Use must or mustn't to respond to the situations. _____

Can you stay a little longer?

I'm sorry, I go.

I'm so tired. Let's go back home.

No, never. We give up.

Can you smell it?

Yes, I can. There be a fire somewhere near.

Ouch, my back hurts!

You do more exercise.

Do you want to study in Boston?

Yes, I do. But I improve my English first.

Why are your neighbours so angry?

We make so much noise at night.

I want to be the best.

OK. But you cheat.

Mum, can I go out now?

Not now. You tidy your room first.

I'm afraid it will rain.

We take an umbrella.

There are two yellow lines on the road.

We stop here.

Answer key

Exercise 4

I'm sorry, I must go.

No, never. We mustn't give up.

Yes, I can. There must be a fire somewhere near.

You mustn't do more exercise.

Yes, I do. But I must improve my English first.

We mustn't make so much noise at night.

OK. But you mustn't cheat.

Not now. You must tidy your room first.

We must take an umbrella.

We mustn't stop here.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.