

Mustn't - Needn't

Exercise 2. Use mustn't or needn't to make sentences with similar meanings. _____

My daughter can't drink milk.

My daughter drink milk.

There are no parking places for visitors there.

Visitors park their cars there.

Don't call him. He knows about it.

You call him. He knows about it.

Teachers aren't allowed to beat children.

Teachers beat children.

No more sweets. I am on a diet.

I eat sweets. I am on a diet.

I don't need a lift to the station. I can walk.

You drive me to the station. I can walk.

I don't want you to clean the windows.

You clean the windows.

Let's hurry up or we will be late.

We be late.

It is not necessary to be there.

We be there.

Don't ring the bell. I have a key.

You ring the bell. I have a key.

Answer key

Exercise 2

My daughter mustn't drink milk.

Visitors mustn't park their cars there.

You needn't call him. He knows about it.

Teachers mustn't beat children.

I mustn't eat sweets. I am on a diet.

You needn't drive me to the station. I can walk.

You needn't clean the windows.

We mustn't be late.

We needn't be there.

You needn't ring the bell. I have a key.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.