

Past perfect continuous: exercise 3

Key with answers

I had been using that phone for a year when it stopped working.

George had been phoning Kate before he crashed.

I had enough of it because I'd been exercising all afternoon.

Sarah had been going out with me until she changed her job.

We'd been writing tests before lunch.

They had been decorating their bedroom. The paint was everywhere.

I'd been eating vegetarian meals for three years when I gave up.

Before my dad retired he had been sailing on big ships.

Somebody had been drinking my apple juice. The glass was nearly empty.

I'd been chatting with my friends that's why my mum was angry.