

Past simple and past continuous: exercise 2

Key with answers.

---

I did my geography homework first and then I had a rest.

My mum often drove our car when we went on holiday.

While her daddy was watching TV, Susan put his key in her pocket.

I needed to talk to her. And at 10 I called her.

I saw you with Jill at the cafe. You were talking with her.

As soon as I learned (learnt) English a little bit, I started to travel.

As they were walking along the river, they saw something in the water.

I took her to Dover last weekend. We had a great time.

The weather was perfect when the sun was shining. But it changed soon.

When I met Samantha, she was wearing a straw hat.