

Past simple and past continuous: exercise 6

Key with answers.

James was riding a motorbike.

He was not (wasn't) riding a motorbike. He was driving a car.

James heard a dog on the road.

He did not (didn't) hear a dog on the road. He saw it.

James ran over the dog.

He did not (didn't) run over the dog. He stopped his car.

The dog was barking at James all the time.

The dog was not (wasn't) barking at James all the time. It barked at him only once.

James talked to the dog.

He did not (didn't) talk to the dog. He shouted at him.

James threw a stone at the dog.

He did not (didn't) throw a stone at the dog. He followed it.

The dog bit James.

The dog did not (didn't) bite James. It took him to the girls.

The girls were sitting on the grass.

They were not (weren't) sitting on the grass. They were lying on it.

The girls were sleeping.

They were not (weren't) sleeping. They were bleeding.