

Present perfect continuous: exercise 4

<https://www.e-grammar.org/present-perfect-continuous/>

Key with answers

Exercise 4

How long have you been waiting for me?

What has John been doing since he returned?

Why have you not been eating | haven't you been eating meat lately?

Has it been snowing all night?

Why have Sam and Mary been arguing for such a long time?

Have you been using my shampoo?

How long has Jill not been wearing | hasn't Jill been wearing glasses?

Have you been revising since you decided to take the exam?

Where has your dad been working lately?

Have you been making a cake?