

Second conditional: exercise 2

Key with answers

I can't tidy my room now. If I had more free time, I would tidy it.

My job isn't well-paid. Provided that I earned a lot of money, however, I would travel round the world.

I spend a lot of time learning English. If I did not learn English, I would try studying Spanish or French.

I have to meet my business partner. But if I had some time to spare, I would visit a museum.

I don't know if my friend needs help. Suppose he needed my help, I would not refuse.

I can't imagine that there would be someone in my bedroom. I would scream if I found a stranger in it.

My teachers are OK. If I couldn't stand my teachers, however, I would never tell them.

I've never won a lottery. But I would not quit my job if I won a million.

You can rely on Jim. If he forgot about it, I would remind him.

Do you want me to pay in advance? I would pay in advance on condition that I got a discount.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.