

Second person imperative

Exercise 4. Use positive or negative imperatives to complete the dialogues. _____

A: What should I do to live a happy life?

B: L _ _ _ the life of your dreams.

A: Where shall we meet?

B: W _ _ _ for me outside the hotel.

A: I left the photos in my bedroom.

B: B _ _ _ _ them here, I want to have a look at them.

A: I'm sorry, what did you say, teacher?

B: _ _ _ _ w _ _ _ _ with your pen, use your pencil instead.

A: _ _ _ _ s _ _ on this chair.

B: Why? Is it dirty?

A: OK, let's make a photo now. Where shall I be?

B: S _ _ _ _ back a little bit, you are too close to me.

A: Here are your new keys. And _ _ _ _ l _ _ _ them again.

B: But I lost my keys only once!

A: P _ _ by credit card on your holiday.

B: Why? Is it cheaper?

A: Do you enjoy your English lessons? They are so boring.

B: B _ _ _ _ _ me or not, I find them quite interesting.

A: What's the matter?

B: Ouch, _ _ _ _ h _ _ _ my hand so tightly.

Answer key

Exercise 4

Live the life of your dreams.

Wait for me outside the hotel.

Bring them here, I want to have a look at them.

Don't write with your pen, use your pencil instead.

Don't sit on this chair.

Stand back a little bit, you are too close to me.

And don't lose them again.

Pay by credit card on your holiday.

Believe me or not, I find them quite interesting.

Ouch, don't hold my hand so tightly.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.