Test 4: Tenses in time clauses, verb forms in conditional sentences

Exercise 1: 12 points

Use the following time expressions and words in brackets to complete the sentences.

What time is she going to leave? - Why do you want to know she leave?

Will you do it before or you finish?

I want to get up early tomorrow - the sun rise.

Can I call you from time to time? - Of course. you need.

Feel free to contact me you need.

You should water the garden it get.

I have to wait the boat land.

Exercise 2: 14 points

Use conditional sentences to respond to the following situations.

Example:
I can't speak Spanish. I won't get the job.
If I could speak Spanish I would get the job.

He didn't have money. He didn't buy the house.
If he had money he would buy the house.

I don't know her number. I can't call her.
Provided I knew her number I could call her.

Exercise 3: 14 points

Make similar conditional sentences.

Example:
It will not snow. We will not go skiing.
If it does not snow we will not go skiing.

She won't come. You must tell her.
She come unless you tell her.

Give him a present. He'll be surprised.
If you give him a present he'll be surprised.

Take it. You won't regret it.
If you take it you won't regret it.

TOTAL 40 points

Mixed tenses exercises