

Third conditional: exercise 4

Key with answers

What birthday present would you have bought for me if you had not forgotten about it?

Marion would have been shocked if you had told her the truth.

Suppose you had wanted to apply for the job, how would you have done it?

I would have agreed with the contract on condition that I had had enough time to think it over.

If we had made the decision in time, we wouldn't have missed the chance.

He would have worked on the project provided he had raised some funds.

If the trees had died, what would you have planted instead of them?

We would have rented the car on condition that it hadn't been so expensive.

We would have ordered the new PC provided that they had delivered it immediately.

If you had lent me the money, I would have given it back to you the following week.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.