

Uncountable nouns with quantifiers

Exercise 4

Choose the correct quantifier and complete the sentences. _____

When I was eighteen, my grandfather gave me a of advice I've never forgotten.

- stroke
 - word
-

Can you pass me of paper, please?

- a sheet
 - an item
-

The only thing you need to succeed in your business is a of luck.

- stroke
 - box
-

Sarah took my joke very seriously. But it was just a of fun.

- item
 - bit
-

Make sure that you dust the floor under every of furniture.

- item
 - carton
-

I have no idea where I've left the of matches.

- box
 - piece
-

Ben is going to play a of music by Chopin at his birthday party.

- sheet
 - piece
-

Do you think that three of milk will be enough?

- cartons
 - pieces
-

Don't forget to buy two of bread for the barbecue.

- bits
 - loaves
-

How many of salami should I put on each plate?

- strokes
 - slices
-

My younger brother is hooked on Coca-Cola. He drinks three or four every day.

- cans
 - bits
-

I was eating my dinner when a news on TV caught my attention.

- sheet
 - item
-

Answer key

Exercise 4

When I was eighteen, my grandfather gave me a word of advice I've never forgotten.

Can you pass me a sheet of paper, please?

The only thing you need to succeed in your business is a stroke of luck.

Sarah took my joke very seriously. But it was just a bit of fun.

Make sure that you dust the floor under every item of furniture.

I have no idea where I've left the box of matches.

Ben is going to play a piece of music by Chopin at his birthday party.

Do you think that three cartons of milk will be enough?

Don't forget to buy two loaves of bread for the barbecue.

How many slices of salami should I put on each plate?

My younger brother is hooked on Coca-Cola. He drinks three or four cans every day.

I was eating my dinner when a news item on TV caught my attention.

Our tip: www.e-grammar.org/pdf-books/ All PDF exercises + grammar rules in one place.